

Mile End Mill Access / Egress

Note that Mile End Mill is a privately owned facility, operated and managed by Llangollen Outdoors (www.llangollenoutdoors.co.uk). Being independent of dam releases, it has White Water all year round.

Site Conditions:

- Charges for using the facilities may apply, contact Llangollen Outdoors for more information;
- The centre is open as follows:
1st May-31st September
 08:30am - 05:30pm 7 days per week (10:00pm on Mondays and Wednesdays)
1st October - 30th April
 08:30am - 05:00pm 7 days per week
- Should you decide to paddle downstream, there are two egress points available as shown below;
- You must have vacated the water at those points by 3:00pm;
- Ty Mawr Country Park egress is only allowed if the river level is over 3ft on the Mile End Mill gauge at 8:00am on the day of paddling.

Mile End Mill Access / Egress

Directions:

- In Llangollen head west along the A5 towards Corwen;
- After 1.0 miles, you will see the Mill on your right;
- Enter and go down the sloping drive to the car park.

Downstream Egress Point 1:

Llangollen Town Weir

To use this egress point, you must vacate the water by 3pm.

Mile End Mill Access / Egress

Directions:

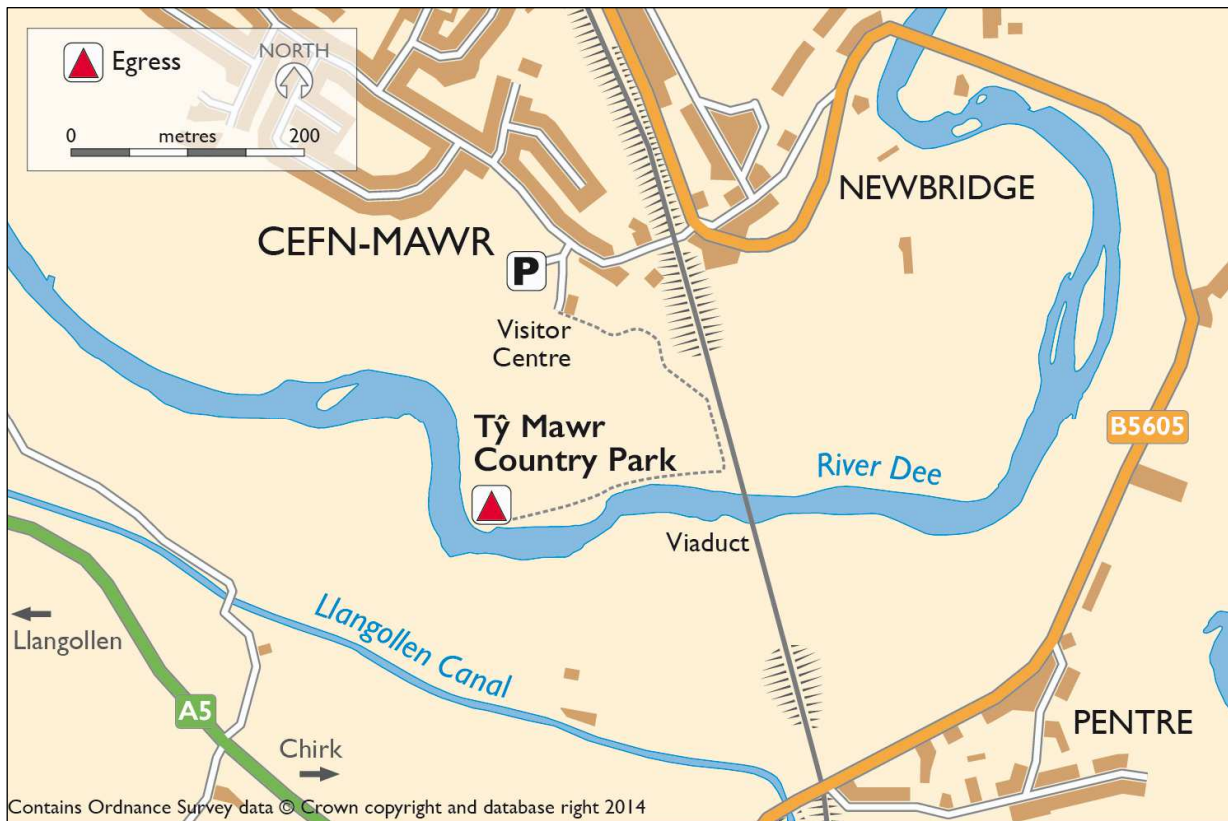

- In Llangollen (Castle Street) cross to the north bank of the Dee via the road bridge;
- On the other side turn right at the t-junction onto the A539 towards Rhiwabon (Ruabon);
- After 260 yards take the right turn to the Long Stay car park just after the Ponsonby Arms pub;
- The exit from the river is at the bottom end of the car park.

Downstream Egress Point 2:

Ty Mawr Country Park

NOTE – To use this egress point, the water level must be recorded as 3ft or higher on either the Coed Y Glyn or the Mile End Mill river height gauges at 8:00am on the morning of paddling. You must vacate the water here by 3pm.

Mile End Mill Access / Egress

Directions:

- In Llangollen head east along the A5 towards Shrewsbury;
- After 4.7 miles, turn left on the B5605;
- After 1.5 miles, turn left onto Cae-Gwilym Lane;
- After 200 yards turn left into the Visitor Centre parking.

